

November Report

Introduction and Mission of the Dekavva Foundation

Successful Events

Motherhood Event (November 17, 2024)

Objective

Providing emotional support to mothers and children affected by the Artsakh War.

Key Elements

Presentation and gifting of the book Ellie the Bunny
Therapeutic sessions for mothers
Creative activities for children

Memorial Evening (November 16, 2024)

Dedicated to the memory of the victims of the Stepanakert explosion (in collaboration with the Dream Foundation).

Other Important Activities

Large-scale event for the children of Tegah village

Planning a big children's celebration
Organizing various creative workshops
Preparing gifts for participants
Creating a festive program with entertaining and educational activities

Support for a family in Gyumri

In the "IMAST app, $816 has been raised to support a family from Gyumri.
The mother has started studying for future work.
The children attend a laboratory and receive education.

Cancer medications for Lyudmila

Cancer medications for Lyudmila, an Artsakh resident who has twin sons. Through fundraising in "IMAST", $875 has been collected.

Future Projects

“Women’s Empowerment” Project on the ReArmenia platform

Objective: Help women enhance their self-esteem, foster responsibility, and ensure psychological stability.

Development Areas: Self-worth, conscious decision-making, access to resources, and community impact.

Fundraising

Project to build a ramp for children with disabilities in Alaverdi through the “Imast” application.

reArmenia

imast

Category	Amount(AMD)
Events	2,198,000
Mechanics	2,263,000
Salaries	375,000
Family in Gyumri	1,069,000
Marketing	600,000
Accounting	100,000

November Report

Introduction and Mission of the Dekavva Foundation